

Western Australia produces some of the world's most distinctive wine, showcasing the finest viticultural talent the state has to offer.

We have curated this list around that belief, every bottle chosen to carry the weight of wood-fire and open flame. The world's finest fill the gaps.

At the bar, the same philosophy holds, cocktails drawn from native botanicals, smoke and seasonal produce, alongside spirits, beers and non-alcoholic options for every occasion.

Director of Food and Beverage, Andrew McGie

'AscuA' — meaning 'ember', where the fire extends beyond the grill behind the glass. Contemporary cocktails inspired by the freshest Western Australian botanicals, crafted behind the bar, to perfectly complement the smoke and char of the kitchen.
